

Alexandria Gazette.

SATURDAY EVENING AUG. 24, 1895.

ALMOST A FATAL JOKE.—A political joke that almost stopped one heart from beating further was played at Wilkesbarre, Pa., on Thursday. Under-estimates Graham and John Clark, two residents of Ashley and enthusiastic Quakers, when they learned the result of the election in Philadelphia became so jubilant that they went to Wilkesbarre to have some fun with their friend Sam Bacharach, who is a strong Hastings man. Clark suggested that they bring a rough box along and bury Bacharach. This was done and an hour later Graham and Clark stopped at Bacharach's and brought in the box. Bacharach, who is subject to heart disease, was prostrated for the time being by the shock, and the box was quickly removed. When he recovered the joke was explained to him and he joined heartily in the laugh.

A MITE OF A BABE.—A baby, whose weight was one and a half pounds, was born near Liberty, N. Y., on Friday last, to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Henry, a Brooklyn couple, who are stopping there for the summer. It is a male and perfectly formed. Its head is the size of a peach of medium growth, and the other portions of its body are small in proportion. It eats with a relish, and Dr. J. L. C. Whitcomb, the attending physician, is confident that the infant will survive.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him sound and well. I heartily recommend this remedy to all persons suffering from a like complaint. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when stamp is inclosed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability. Wm. Roach, J. P., Primory, Campbell Co., Tenn. For sale by L. Stabler & Co.
